Iraq-Kuwait: Situation Report #482

Other Reactions to Iraqi Missile Attack

Kuwait: Fearful that Iraq's attack against Israel could threaten the coalition against Baghdad, Kuwait's UN ambassador expressed hope that the United States "will take care of that and control the Israeli reaction."

Japan: Prime Minister Kaifu called the Iraqi attack on Israel "very regrettable" and said that "the Iraqi invasion should not be linked with the Palestinian issue." [REDACTED]

Soviet Union: Tass, quoting US news sources, carried the story without an official statement from the Kremlin. [REDACTED]

EC Ministers Back Peace Conference

At an emergency meeting in Paris, European Community foreign ministers appealed to Iraq to withdraw immediately from Kuwait to spare the Iraqi people further destruction and suffering. At the same time, the ministers renewed their "total commitment" to the calling of an international conference on peace in the Middle East. They pledged to work for social justice and regional economic solidarity once "international legality" was restored. [REDACTED]
